USAID Bureau for Policy, Planning and Learning (PPL) Institutional Support Services
GS-00F-133DA / AID-OAA-M-17-00003 | 07/2021 – 07/2024 | $7,473,241

RP implemented new recruitment processes, breaking Agency records and adding 15 new job assignments.

USAID PPL guides the Agency's policy development, ensuring that Agency processes are informed by evidence and analysis. RP empowers the USAID Missions in Kenya, Lebanon and South Africa through the provision of comprehensive mission support services, including expert technical assistance in monitoring and evaluation, and skilled facilitation to enable effective collaboration during staff TDYs.

NIH Office of Extramural Research Communications and Outreach BPA
Subk (75N97019A00002) | 06/2019 – 06/2024 | $3,300,270

RP provides program management, communications, and outreach support services to OER, including professional, scientific, analytical, consultative, and subject matter expertise. The team launched OER's first virtual conference series and supports all communication and outreach for the Small Business Education and Entrepreneurial Development (SEED) program. Today, SEED attracts over 1K LinkedIn followers and over 8K X (formerly Twitter) followers while also cultivating an email program with more than 30K subscribers.

RP's facilitated 2023 virtual event series attracted 30K registrations and over 86K views, including 13K conference newcomers.

NSF Division of Administrative Services Administrative Operations Support Services
49100422D0008 | 11/2022 – 09/2027 | $4,500,000

RP strengthens stakeholder confidence by alleviating aspects of the decision-making process.

To help implement DAS's strategic goals, RP's personnel work across departmental, divisional, and other NSF hierarchies to identify management patterns, best practices, and human resources (HR) processes related to a forthcoming workforce evaluation assessment. Our management consultant, who is skilled at navigating government channels and bureaucracy, meets with the COR and Chief Advisor for write-ups, research, and strategic planning assignments aimed modernizing initiatives and workforce strategy across NSF.
